Under the banner of SPICMACAY (Society for Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture amongst Youth), the team of talented artists led by Ustad Bhunger Khan Manganiya – the youngest Sangeet Natak awardee amongst the Rajasthani

Folk artists enthralls the students of DPS Bokaro by presenting a spell bounding dance performance 'Kalbeliya & Bhari' on the Rajasthani folk song at Ashwaghosh Kala Bhavan. Earlier, the programme started with a traditional 'tilak' welcome, Ganesha Vandana and a bhajan on Radhey Krishna.

Dr. Hemlata S Mohan, Secretary for SPICMACAY Jharkhand State Chapter said, "Such programme seeks to conserve and promote an awareness of our rich and heterogeneous cultural diversity amongst the youth of this country laying emphasis on music and dance. It is a value based education to provoke thought and a genuine enquiry before becoming the custodian of what is actually their birthright, namely their heritage, roots and identity”

She further said that the programme was a healthy break and an enjoyable learning experience and also expressed her gratitude towards SPICMACAY for the commendable efforts in uplifting Indian music and the cultural plethora. Further she encouraged the students to continue the legacy rich, diverse and unique cultural spread of India.
