DPS Bokaro Primary Wing students explore the world of Philately

Two day exhibition concludes; Members from Philately Society of India put up an exhibition of postage stamps for students of DPS Bokaro Primary Wing

Delhi Public School (DPS) Bokaro Primary Wing organized an interesting exhibition on 'Philately' for the students to know more about postage stamps and how to pursue Philately as a hobby. The two day exhibition was inaugurated by the respected Director and Principal of DPS Bokaro, Dr. Hemlata S. Mohan.

Dr. Hemlata S. Mohan said that, "Philately is a wonderful and exciting world and students should explore more about it. The school continues to impart them with various opportunities to help the students discover the best that suits them". The Primary students along with their parents were introduced to an array of postage stamps depicting the different historical era from pre- Independence to post Independence including the first postage stamp of India. The Parents commended the interesting exhibition having a wide array of stamps.
