

Career counseling seminar at DPS Bokaro

“Such seminars act as lighthouse for the students dwelling precious time in gathering voluminous resources on various career options”

- Dr. Hemlata S. Mohan, Director and Principal of DPS Bokaro

DPS Bokaro organised a career counseling seminar for its students on various career options available in India and abroad. In a Guest Speaker Programme, Mr. Om Agarwal, Founder of Eazy Coach (an online platform which helps students make it to their dream college) was invited by the school to address the gathering of students of Class XI & XII and share some insightful information for what they have been selected as one of the most promising startups from India to represent in Silicon Valley, USA.

Mr. Agarwal addressed key concerns of the students through many informative presentations from getting admission in the Best colleges across globe, pros and cons of studying abroad to the gap in demand and supply in engineering sectors. He laid stress on the importance of being a specialist in the core engineering sectors.

Dr. Hemlata S. Mohan, Director & Principal of DPS, Bokaro said that “Today we have diverse specializations and selecting one over another has become an uphill task. Such seminars act as lighthouse for the students dwelling precious time in gathering voluminous resources on various career options. It helps them decide to select the best suited course and college especially in the foreign countries and hence the future course of career in their lives.”
