

DPS Bokaro Students Shine at Global Platform – Qualifies for German International Youth Camp- Only School to Represent Jharkhand & Bihar

Adding another feather to its cap of glory, three students of Delhi Public School Bokaro, Anushka Srivastava, Mitali Singh and Gaurav Kumar Singh (all of class IX) not only made their alma mater proud but also the state of Jharkhand and Bihar by being selected to participate in the prestigious International Youth Camp to be held at St. Peter-Ording I, Germany from 5th to 25th May this year.

This camp is a part of the scholarship offered to those students who have excelled in German language studies at the state level; hence, all expenses pertaining to the trip i.e. flight tickets, food and lodging, travel insurance etc. are borne by Goethe-Institut. These students qualified a challenging selection test (online) followed by an interview over Skype to make way to Deutschland.

It's worth mentioning here that every year Goethe-Institut organizes these camps in Germany for students from more than 1800 schools all over the global countries which are a part of the PASCH network worldwide.

“During this 20 days camp the students not only get the opportunity to brush up their language skills but also take part in many fun activities like workshops, quiz, film show, excursions etc. They also gain firsthand knowledge about the language, culture, people of that country” informed Amit Kumar Singh, the German Language teacher, DPS Bokaro.

Expressing her happiness, Dr. Hemlata S Mohan, Director & Principal, DPS Bokaro said that this success is the result of the relentless efforts of the students and the perseverance of their teacher. The entire DPS Bokaro family is proud of this success.

Dr. Mohan informed, “Being a part of the PASCH network brings many joys to its students and one of them is the opportunity to take part in an international youth camp in Germany.”
