

DPS Bokaro releases its Year Planner 2016-17

On a special occasion at DPS Bokaro, Dr. Hemlata S. Mohan, Director & Principal with much delight and joy released the year planner for the on-going session 2016-17. This Year Planner is very special in its design as it showcases the creativity of the students. Aesthetically, it is a perfect blend of inspiration, creativity and motivation.

Addressing to a special assembly, she appreciated the students whose paintings along with their names and photographs have been included in the planner. She also underlined the importance of creativity in the enhancement of a holistic development of an individual. The Planner highlights the important days and events of the session 2016-17.
